

Profile

Name : Mohena Singh

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Asst. System Analyst at EDF Energy, UK through TCS
- Sales experience- TESCO. London
- Sales Experience- John Lewis PLC., London

Duties included: Exercising stockroom efficiency, meeting daily sales targets, aiding customers with suggestions by utilising targeted market segmentation and displaying knowledge of current trends, understanding and demonstrating knowledge surrounding health and safety protocols of products being sold, analysing and executing the most efficient online and offline purchasing mechanisms for foreign and local customers based on temporal and availability factors

- Supply Chain Intern, Tata Steel Europe, London:

Duties included: Understanding the steel manufacturing process at factory location, assisting the strategy team with creating and updating customer portfolios, working alongside the communications team in developing a presentation and report detailing the prospects of the firm in the steel industry based on past and current corporate climate

- Intern, Bank of India. Mansion House, London:

Duties include: Assisting the opening of current accounts by updating customer database, aiding the remittances department by handling archives, understanding risk assessment of certain accounts and individual money transfers made.

EDUCATION

BSc(Honours): Business

(Birkbeck, University of London)

- keen international business acumen gained through applying core business theories, concepts and case studies to organisations across the world.
- Leadership skills developed through group presentations with peers, where organisation skills were honed, tasks were delegated and strategic decisions were made on a weekly basis.
- Developed problem solving and numeracy skills by using statistical modelling software such as SPSS.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office, including Access, Excel, Word and PowerPoint.

Notable Modules: Management of Innovation, Research Project, Strategic Management, Buyer Behaviour, Macroeconomics for Business, Operations Management, Brand Development.